IIAC APPROVES FULL RIDE

Higher Board Okays Budget

The Illinois Board of Higher Education recently approved more than 98 per cent of Eastern's operating budget requests of $35,954,322 for the biennium beginning July 1, 1969.

Approximately one-half of the amount deleted—about $302,000—represented adjustments which were applied to all budgets. Taking this into account, the amount approved by the board was 99 per cent of the adjusted total—or $35,236,478. Total amount cut by the board was $667,844. Eastern's budget for the current biennium totals $23,600,000.

FOLLOWING the board's decision, President Quincy Doudna said:

"Eastern Illinois University has had a long-standing reputation for asking only what it believes is necessary. I believe today's action by the higher board reflects its faith in the policy represented."

The largest cut was $94,000 from the $459,000 increase asked for books, staff and equipment for the library. The remainder of the reductions came from additional funds asked in support of a new Honors Program, an FM educational radio station, matching funds for equipment, a proposed Bureau of Educational Planning and Service, and increased faculty research.

THE BOARD allowed $16,500 in developmental costs for new specialists degrees, but asked that other costs of the programs come from previously budgeted funds.

Additional funds for the library hinge upon a recently-opened addition. Purchase of 80,000 volumes is contemplated in the two year period. Space limitations had kept the present volume number to about $150,000.

Eastern's budget requests now go to the General Assembly and the Office of the Governor.

Casadesus To Play Here

Jean Casadesus, "a pianist born to a notable musical tradition," will present a concert at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Fine Arts Theatre.

The pianist made his debut as soloist under the baton of Eugene Ormandy in 1947 as winner of the Philadelphia Orchestra Youth Contest. The next fall he won the First Medal at the Geneva International Competition.

His program will include Fantasia in C minor by Bach; Variations on a Minuet by Mozart; Sonata No. 23 in F minor, Op. 57 (Appassionata) by Beethoven; Barcarolle, Op. 60, Nocturne, C-sharp minor, Op. 27, No. 1, and Polonaise in A-flat minor, Op. 53, all by Chopin; and Six Preludes by Debussy.

5 O'Clock Theater Presents 'Chicago'

"Chicago", an extreme play by Sam Shepard, will be presented as the first winter quarter five o'clock theatre production Wednesday in the Fine Arts Theatre.

According to director Peg Johnson, senior theatre arts major from Des Plaines, "Sam Shepard is a new playwright associated with off-off Broadway productions."

$1,000 Goal Reached For Peace Corps

The goal of $1,000 in the Campus School to School Project was reached last Nov. 20, when Stevenson Hall's $100 donation put the drive over the top, according to Linda Reuter, chairman of the drive.

The drive is part of a Peace Corps program which builds schools in underdeveloped areas of the world. Miss Reuter indicated that the school would be built by the Peace Corps in the name of Eastern.

THE DRIVE, sponsored by Andrews Hall, was conceived a year ago when Carol Gay, an Eastern graduate and former Andrews Hall resident, wrote to friends in Andrews suggesting the program. It finally got under way last Spring.

According to Miss Reuter, the Peace Corps pays for the construction of the school while the local village pays the teacher salary and the upkeep of the building.

A clause built into the program allows for direct correspondence between the Peace Corps school and Eastern so that contributors to the program may satisfy themselves that their donation has been spent properly.

Miss Reuter emphasized that while the drive has reached its $1,000 goal, some schools cost up to $1,800 and additional donations will be accepted until Jan. 15.

Hans Olsen Dies In Minn., Funeral Today

In perhaps the most important action taken by the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference since its formation, the IIAC approved adoption of the full NCAA grant-in-aid and to subscribe to the National Letter of Intent in the conference's annual winter meeting held Saturday in the University Union Ballroom.

The conference's unanimous action provides for a maximum of 130 scholarships to be put in effect September 1, 1969 and the legislation is permissive in that it does not require a member school to maintain the maximum number of grants at all times.

THE FULL NCAA grant allows for the payment of full tuition and fees, room and board, books and $15 dollars per month for incidental expenses. Previously the conference had permitted athletic aid to cover only tuition payments or to cover one-half room and board plus full tuition, fees and books.

In relation to its adoption of the National Letter of Intent, the conference authorized the attendance of its commissioner, Dr. Dempsey Reid of Western Illinois, at the Letter of Intent and NCAA meeting in Los Angeles January 6-8, 1969.

Milt Weisbecker, director of athletics for Illinois State University, believes the conference will now play stiffer competition because of the full grants, "We already schedule Akron, Indiana State, and Central Missouri in football. These teams currently have the full ride, while in the future we have Southern Illinois University and Northern Illinois on the schedule."

WEISBECKER noted that his school will more than likely recruit totally in Illinois due to the lack of recruiting time given the coaches. "Each school now has a fine core of coaches but must now recruit boys worthy of the grants. Because the conference schools allow little time for recruiting we (Illinois State) feel that we don't have time to concentrate on athletes outside Illinois."

The conference set minimum and maximum figures for athletic grants per sport as: football 75-81, basketball 18-22, baseball and track 7-9, swimming, wrestling and gymnastics 3-5, and golf and tennis 1-3. Soccer received no grants because it is not a conference sport.

Eastern Athletic Director Tom Katsimpalis is not sure how Eastern will use the grants, "There will have to be two or three meetings with the coaching staff and the athletic board to determine how many rides we will begin with next September. Quite a bit of research will have to be made as to what the best system of awarding the grants will be."

KATSIMPALIS did note that, "an estimate of the number of grants awarded next fall would fall somewhere between 65-70 per cent of the 130 allowed."

The cost per student is not certain at this point but Katsimpalis reports, "The program will be inaugurated with no increase in fees to the student in 1969-70." (Continued on page 7)

'Outback Australia' To Show Thursday

An Audubon Society film entitled "Outback Australia" will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in McAfee Gymnasium by Eben McMillan.

On a camping trip McMillan and his wife covered 15,000 miles of the uncharted land of pink-breasted galahs, blossoming eucalyptus and large sulphur-crested cockatoos.

People of the land are featured too, with attention given to the famous Aboriginal tribes.

The film is being sponsored by Eastern and the National Audubon Society. No admission will be charged.

Senate Discusses Dorm Regulations

Dorm regulations highlighted the first Student Senate meeting of winter quarter. Two commissions were formed: one for men's residence halls and one for women's residence halls to review the present regulations in the dormitories and to carefully examine five categories of rules.

Regulations under fire include those that are not necessary to maintain proper order or insure an academic environment, those dealing with minute or trivial matters and those attempting to regulate the moral or sexual habits of the students.

Also included are those that are mere statements of conduct that should be normally expected of a college student and those that are conflicting with the Student Bill of Rights.

SENATOR JERRY Reichenbacher's motion also called for the revision or elimination of such regulations and the formation of a set of standardized rules for men's and women's dorms that would be incorporated into official dormitory policy upon approval of the senate and Dean Rudolph Anfinson's staff.

Dan DeMarco of the Student Publications Board reported to the senate a proposal from that board that would require the yes vote of four of the seven members of the Student Publications Board before an editor of any student publication could be approved.

The initial appointment would be made by the publications adviser. The same system would be effective in the dismissal of an editor.

DEMARCO'S proposal caused the senate to reconsider that portion of the 43 demands of last quarter that dealt with the appointment and dismissal of editors. Discussion on that topic will take place this week.

In other business, the Student Senate passed a motion to support the Greeks in their fight against zoning ordinances and provide any help they could.

The senate also requested that a policeman be put on duty at Lantz parking lot 4 p.m. Fridays to help alleviate the congestion at that time.

Waiver Requests

Any student who needs to request a waiver of a university requirement should do so immediately in the Office of the Dean of Student Academic Services, Old Main, 118. Delay in requesting the waiver will result in delay in receiving the Dean's decision, possibly until after the preregistration period has closed.

Reinstatement Correction

(The notice which appeared in the Official Notices on October 18, 1968, was incorrect; a very important word (not) was left out. The notice should read as follows.)

"A period of one quarter must elapse before a student may be readmitted, unless the student has fewer than five deficit points and has not been dropped previously, or has a written recommendation from the Dean of Men, Dean of Women, or University Physician, stating that extenuating circumstances would make immediate consideration desirable."

The above policy became effective this past September 1, and means that at the close of the fall quarter very few students just dropped will be eligible for reinstatement for the winter quarter, and that there must be very extenuating circumstances for the consideration of a petition at that time.

Wm. H. Zeigel
Vice President for Administration

Teaching Practicum

All secondary and special area majors planning to participate in the teaching practicum during the spring quarter, 1969, are requested to contact their coordinators. Necessary forms and materials will be distributed by the coordinators.

Copies of the Guidebook for Student Teachers will be available in the Student Teaching Office, AAEC 103, and may be picked up AFTER reporting for a physical examination at the Health Center. It is necessary that all participants receive a copy of this handbook and be cleared at the Health Center prior to leaving campus at the close of winter quarter.

Handbooks must be received and health exams must be completed prior to March 1, 1969.

R. Zabko, Director
Off-Campus Student Teaching

Degree Changes

Any student who wishes to change his degree must fill out a request form in the Office of the Dean of Student Academic Services, Old Main 118. A change in major does not constitute a change in degree. Delay in requesting a change of degree will result in a delay in the adviser's receiving the new exemption record, possibly until after the close of the preregistration period.

Schaefer Thanks Survey Helpers

Dear Editor:

Through the courtesy of the Eastern News I should like to publicly express appreciation for the cooperation and assistance extended by a number of Eastern's students during the recent traffic survey.

Under the supervision of Roger Monroe, the men of Alpha Phi Omega fraternity provided the major share of manpower needed to man the several counting stations. In addition, the men of Delta Chi fraternity and the women of Delta Zeta sorority provided valuable assistance.

IT IS A genuine pleasure to commend Roger and his co-workers for the contribution they have made during this survey which is designed to provide valuable data for use in resolving traffic and parking problems on our campus.

It is especially gratifying to note that Eastern's students are willing to give freely of their time and energy toward the solution of problems which are of mutual concern to all of us.

Sincerely,
Martin Schaefer
Vice President for Development

Women's Dorms Become Unsafe

Dear Editor,

Must women of residence halls form their own police force in order to gain protection against men walking around the floors of women's dorms? Must each woman possess a black belt in karate in order to protect herself from demented men wandering around on her floor?

How are the women to know whether a man on her floor is a maintenance man, a janitor, an electrician or an attacker? These questions are not asked without reason.

THIS PAST fall quarter there have been two incidents of unwanted men being on the floor of Lawson Hall. In one case there were two young men and in the other there was a drunk. What were they doing? Reason — Unknown! What did they want? Reason — Unknown!

Sure, these were only two incidents in one dorm. But how many incidents have gone by unreported? How many incidents are necessary before women gain protection?

Women cannot live each and every hour in their rooms behind locked doors. Is there no other safety? Who will answer?

Airplanes? Uh Uh!

Flying, to me, is for the birds. Nonetheless, there does come to pass certain circumstances which force me to push myself into an airplane. Maybe its just me, but my experiences tend to be unique, if not horrifying.

It all started when I missed the scheduled flight and was then forced to fly on one of those non-scheduled planes. Now I don't want to comment on the character of the airlines, but I became worried when I found I was with Grandma Ferris' Storm Door and Airplane Company.

FORTY PEOPLE boarded the craft, climbing over the wing and the whole bit. The stewardess, who could have been Grandma Ferris herself, welcomed us with, "Hello, sucker!"

One of the first things I did when I reached my seat was to fasten my seat-belt. I have this fear that if the plane came to a sudden stop, like against a mountain, and I didn't have my seat belt buckled, my whole massive body would be thrown up through the front of the cabin where the captain and stewardess are having their party. On the other hand, if I do have on my seat belt, only the top half of my body would be thrown to interrupt the party and the rest of me would sit there with my legs crossed, nonchalant as hell.

I then immediately began to scour through the batch of information left in the envelope stamped, "life or death." Inside were instructions on how to open your parachute, written in three easy-to-understand languages: French, Italian and Hebrew.

THE PILOT was now starting the engines and we taxied to the end of the runway. We were then towed back to refuel.

After we finally managed to get into the air, with the help of the world's biggest rubber band, everyone heard the intercom click on and we were aware the captain was about to speak.

"Uh, this is your captain speaking, Captain Holbrook. We're flying a non-stop flight to . . . uh, uh, . . . oh yes, Los Angeles. We'll be cruising at, oh I don't know, 20,000 feet or so. We have strong tail winds and will probably be landing 15 minutes ahead of our schedule."

NOW I REALLY began to get worried. He could land two hours early if he set it down in the middle of the Grand Canyon.

I am convinced it is only by the grace of God we were able to land with any degree of safety. I don't think I will ever forget the terrifying sight as I glanced over my shoulder on the way to cover inside the terminal, and saw them carrying the plane by stretcher to the emergency hanger.

Schoenbrun Blasts U.S. For Vietnam Involvement

By Pam McClenahan

"We must be willing to swallow our pride to end the war in Vietnam," said David Schoenbrun, former award-winning CBS broadcaster, in a lecture prior to quarter break.

Schoenbrun, a well-known anti-Vietnam advocate, is now teaching the first one-year course at Columbia University on the history of Vietnam.

His was the second of four lectures sponsored by the Lecture Series Board.

DRAMATICALLY, dynamically and often wittily, he laid before the estimated audience of 175 people a Vietnamese past and condemned every U.S. administration from Roosevelt's to Johnson's.

Schoenbrun criticized the inconsistency of U.S. policy toward communism. The United States can contain Cuba without arms 90 miles off its coast line, he said, but must go half-way around the world to contain China in Vietnam.

He maintains that the war started in November of 1946. This was when the French invaded the harbor of Haiphong in North Vietnam, violating an agreement made in March of that year. Red China did not exist at this time and Schoenbrun challenged Dean Rusk to deny this fact.

"THE VIETNAMESE peasants won the victory over the French armies, but in December of 1949 armies of France again invaded the shores of Vietnam, this time claiming they were saving western civilization from Red China communism," Schoenbrun commented.

The U.S. heartily agreed to these motivations, and it was in 1950 that Senator Joseph McCarthy began his famous charges of global communism.

In the Geneva Conference of 1954 it was agreed that Vietnam should hold elections within two years. Schoenbrun said that instead of the elections the South Vietnamese were given a dictator to run their government.

"EISENHOWER never legally obligated this country to anything in Vietnam," Schoenbrun noted. "President Kennedy sent 12,000 soldiers there, but called them 'advisors' so that the country's flag was not committed. It was Johnson who made it a war."

He held little hope for change during the Nixon administration. Sparing few public figures the wrath of his sarcasm, he stated that "Nixon has been consistent, but I have never known him to be right." He cited Nixon as one of the first officials to advocate the sending of U.S. soldiers to Vietnam. The president-elect is currently supporting Johnson's policies, according to Schoenbrun, and it appears that he will continue to do so during his administration.

"If we can find the courage to swallow our pride and admit that we cannot win," he said, "the next logical step is to support elections in Vietnam—held under a cease fire."

Questioning Stephen Decatur's patriotic cliché, "My country, right or wrong," he disagreed, saying, "When right, to be kept right. When wrong, to be put right."

Tankmen Fifth At ISU

Eastern's swim team began the season by participating in the Illinois State University relays Saturday and the tankmen finished fifth in a field of 11 schools.

The lone Panther relay unit to capture a first was the 300 yard breaststroke relay team of Clay Kolar, Art Michel and Dan Furlan as the trio finished the distance in the time of 3:09.2.

THE WINNER of the meet was Southern Illinois University. Following the Salukis were Indiana State, Eastern Kentucky, the University of Illinois and Eastern was fifth.

Central Michigan finished sixth with host school Illinois State seventh trailed by Evansville Bradley, Augustana and Western Illinois University.

Two records were established in the relays as Indiana State's 300 yard butterfly relay squad toured the distance in the time of 2:45.6 and Southern's 300 yard backstroke team finished in the record time of 2:54.9.

OTHER EASTERN finishers were diving, third; 300 yard independent medley relay, fourth; 400 yard free relay fifth; 800 yard free relay, 400 yard medley relay, 500 yard Crescendo relay and the 300 yard butterfly relay teams all finished sixth.

Tumblers Win

Coach Bob Hussey's gymnastics squad started the season on the right foot as the tumblers defeated Central Michigan 121-100.

Eastern grabbed seven firsts in the meet and also grabbed seven seconds.

JAY JOHNSON of the Panthers took first in the floor exercises with Marv Farthing earning second place. In the side horse Don Sabey won first, while Farthing took first in the long horse and the horizontal bar. Bill Cook also took a first in the parallel bars.

Saturday, the gymnasts travel to Memphis State and do not return to action until after the holidays.

Panthers Second In Tourney

By Bill Lair

Illinois State's high flying Redbirds scooted past Central Michigan Friday and then turned a close contest into a runaway in Saturday's championship affair with Eastern, 101-84, to capture the first annual Interstate Conference basketball tourney.

In Friday's opener, ISU easily downed Central Michigan, 77-65 while the host Panthers turned away Western Illinois by a 70-60 clip.

THIS WAS the home opener for new coach Don Eddy's forces and the "runnin' runts" showed the Leathernecks how to play basketball when handicapped by a lack of height.

The stage was set for the championship contest between Eastern and Illinois State, after Central Michigan had disposed of Western Illinois 85-70 behind the 26 point effort of Chip sophomore Paul Botts.

STATE QUICKLY jumped off to a 5-0 lead before Tom Ferriell scored on a drive to the right of the bucket and then was fouled by Tom Taulbee of the Redbirds. Ferriell's charity effort was good and Eastern trailed 5-3.

Eastern grabbed the lead momentarily as Roberts scored from the baseline with 10:38 in the half to make the score 25-24. It was nip and tuck throughout the remainder of the half before State took the advantage 48-43 at the intermission.

THE PANTHERS went down by 10 points at the start of the second stanza, 53-43 but Coach Eddy's forces rallied and eventually regained the lead 71-70 on a shot by Ferriell with 9:05 left in the ballgame.

The last time the game was tied was at 76-76 before the Redbirds scored with 5:47 remaining. The score stood 83-78 with 3:47 left in the contest but ISU ran off 10 straight points and put the game out of reach at 93-78 with 1:41 to go in the game.

BLAINE ROYER was the contest's leading scorer with 30 points while his running mate Green tallied 25 points. The two connected on 17 of 30 attempts from the field and 21 of 21 attempts from the free throw line.

Eastern's top scorer was Beenders with 21 points, Tom Ferriell had 18 and Steve Little and John Stafford each added 10 points to the cause.

The next contest for the Panthers is tonight as the varsity tackles Indiana Central at 8 p.m. while Coach Bud Scott's JV's will battle Danville Junior College at 6 p.m.
